

SALT LAKERS IN GOTHAM.

Special Correspondence.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The Le Boeg Amusement company, which will bring out "Noah's Ark" on the 22d of April at Baltimore, and in which Harry Bulger again makes his bow to the public as a star, has secured the services of Sallie Fisher, who has a part equal to Bulger's in interest and claim for popular favor. Miss Fisher left Frank Daniels and the "Tattooed Man" last Wednesday to begin rehearsals in the new piece. Edna Fessett, the Fritz Schell understudy in "Mile Modiste," made her first appearance Thursday night in Miss Fisher's part.

It was only after a great deal of thought on the subject and advice from friends that Miss Fisher decided to leave the management of C. B. Dillingham and risk an untold play, the chances were favorable for her, and yet the piece might be a failure in the trying out, but such risks are always taken in the profession, and Miss Fisher is only following the lead chosen by others with fewer prospects in sight. There are three songs in "Noah's Ark" which will fall to the lot of the Salt Lake girl—"My Very Own" and "Wilderness," with another one sung with the chorus. Clara Kummer, the composer of the songs, seems to have outdone herself in the theme and sentiment she has given the two named, and as in "Dearie" she has again struck a responsive chord that seems to exist between writer and singer, predictions are common that they will be as popular as "Dearie" has been. One week in Washington after Baltimore, one in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, then if all is well with the venture, Chicago and New York will bid for its summer run. Mrs. C. P. Fisher is expected home next week, and on April 15 the apartment on West One Hundred and Ninth street, occupied by Mrs. and Miss Fisher, will be given up, and the Port Washington house opened for the summer; such are the present plans, and the friends of Mrs. and Miss Fisher, who are legion in and out of the profession, are hoping for the young lady's success.

The Edward MacDowell association held its second annual dinner in the Vanderbilt gallery, fine arts building, last Tuesday. Richard Watson Gildy, Hamilton Garland and Henry Miller were the speakers. It is an organization of the friends who honor the memory of the composer. Both music and drama were literally represented—Sir Edwin Edgar, the English composer, Safford, Wm. Donald, M. and Mme. Dippel, Mme. Ala. Naimova, Mrs. Richard Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Frohman, the sculptor, French and other members of the Manhattan and Metropolitan Opera houses, besides a great number of celebrated writers of the city. Miss Emma Lucy Gates, who is a member of the association, was present, and met many eminent people at the dinner.

Miss Gates gave with President MacQuarrie to Baltimore and Washington the coming week to attend the conferences held there, and will ring at both places. She will then make a trip to Washington, North Carolina, and visit with her friend, Miss Dunlap, for a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright have moved from Middletown, Brooklyn, to 346 Dean street, Brooklyn. Mrs. Wright was formerly Miss Clara Ferguson of Salt Lake. Mrs. Dr. Ferguson will live with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Braverman, who is a legion in and out of the profession, are hoping for the young lady's success.

Miss Merle Snow, who has been studying with Mrs. Jane B. Walker, will soon be studying with Mrs. Walker. She was last week at her home in New York. The Misses Rachel and Merle Snow are very popular socialists. The former being a piano pupil of Mrs. Walker, and a most accomplished young musician.

Last week being Holy week, the students of the different universities here took advantage of the holiday and plunged into all sorts of games. Dan McQuarrie gave a party Thursday evening at his home on West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sears gave a small dinner party, and Miss Nan Clavess an old-fashioned mosses candy party Saturday evening to the younger members of the colony.

Easter Sunday with its new spring hats and nobby suits has come and gone. The day was most delightful, the churches were bowers of roses, and the Fifth avenue promenade a most gorgeous spectacle.

E. H. Southern and Miss Julia Marlow left for London Thursday morning on the Hamburg-American liner Amerika. The Southern-Marlowe company left on the steamer Minnehaha following Saturday. On this steamer there was loaded the ten carloads of scenery which the company will use in England. The engagement of the Southern-Marlowe company will open on April 15 at the Waldorf theater, and will cover a period of six weeks. The entire equipment for the presentation of twelve plays was taken aboarding Saturday.

The first week of the engagement in London will be devoted to "The Sunken Bell," "Jeanne d'Arc," "Twelfth Night," and "As You Like It." The second week will be given over entirely to "When Knighthood Was in Flower." The bill for the third and other weeks has not yet been decided upon. During the London engagement the Southern-Marlowe company will present five plays that were not given during the eight weeks' engagement at the Lyric theater: "The Daughter of Jorio," "Joyzele," by Maeterlinck, "Guinevere," "As You Like It" and "When Knighthood Was in Flower." The much talked of visit of the Southern-Marlowe company to the castle of Elsinore, where "Hamlet" will be presented, has been scheduled for June 4.

Monday evening, Mr. Stuart M. Kohn will leave for St. Louis, where he will appear in the United States circuit court in behalf of the bondholders of the Randolph Macon Coal Co., involving a redemption of $2,000,000 worth of bonds. Mr. Kohn is attorney for the bondholders, and is entrusted with this business, which means a vast deal to the company he represents. Mrs. Stuart Kohn (formerly Mrs. De Pott) and her friend, Miss Ruth Hayes, will remain at their home on West Ninety-third street, during the absence of Mr. Kohn. JANET.

A Battle of Butterflies. "A battle of butterflies," said the Japanese viscount firmly. "Impossible!" cried the lady on his right. "Oh," the viscount insisted, "the thing is authenticated. It happened on Aug. 30, 1889. Tales and poems without number have been written on it. "On the afternoon of that day two opposing armies of the butterflies fought an aerial battle between Nojima and Kawasaki-Mura. The fight continued till sunset, when the smaller army turned and retreated, the victors pursuing it till all were lost in the rosy sunset haze. The ground beneath the combat was thickly strewn with wounded and dead warriors. "The battle drew 1,000 people. It occurred about 30 feet in the air. The spectators were amazed and horrified to see these gentle blue butterflies grappling and struggling furiously and silently in a blue blizzard above their heads."

MR. A. A. BENDER GETS GOOD POSITION.

In one year's spare time study with the International Correspondence School, I qualified for and secured a good position as Mechanical Draftsman at $100 per month. I had most highly recommended their courses as they are easily learned, thorough, brief and practical. Signed, A. A. BENDER, 722 South W. Temple, Salt Lake City. Local Office, 78 W. 2nd South.
